PROLOGUE

In OUR year we have come to learn,
To be guided into life's meaning.
So we have become as those before us,
A part of the Lenoir Rhyne experience.

At first we groped to discover,
Yet there was a void . . .
We had not included ourselves.

We had come to take away—
Knowledge, understanding, friendship—
But we had asked an impossibility.

DLNE TIUM
GRATIAE DEDE UAE

Veri-Thin

The past had offered this year,
But it was not ours until we had given,
Until we had made this year OUR year.

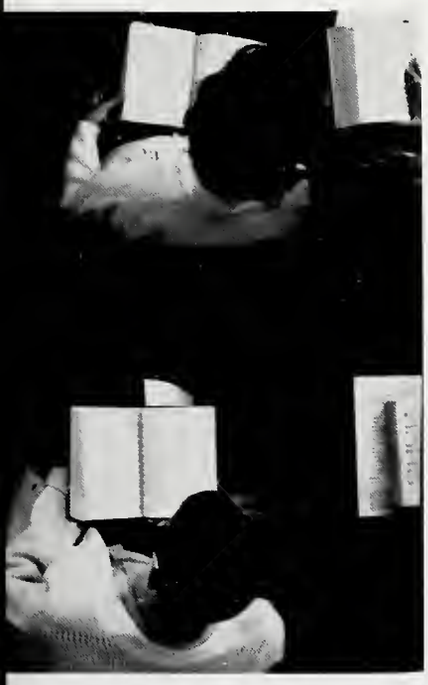

We have wished at times that it pass quickly,
Yet it has ended all too suddenly;
We have looked back,
And seen the moments wasted,
The opportunities passed by,
The ideals shattered—
The Truth gained.

DIRECTION

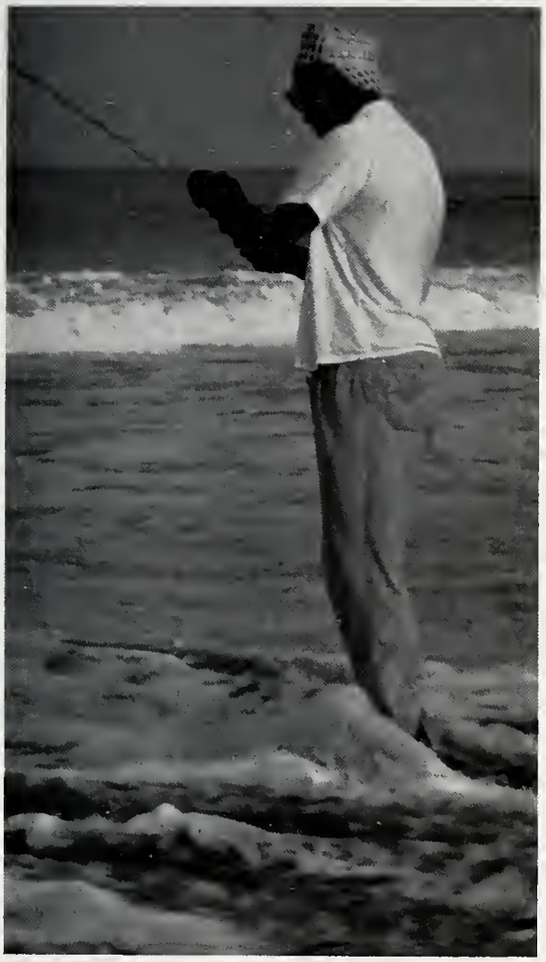

We are to seek the truth,
but there is such confusion.
We have inquiring minds,
but which way shall we turn?
We go to one another,
yet there is turmoil still.
Where else is there to look?
We think the admission
may prove our weakness—
We find our minds
are opened by guidance;
We may accept, we may discard
what we have heard;
We voice our complaints,
our personal gripes,
yet when we stop and look around
Where would Lenoir Rhyne, where would we be now
without DIRECTION?

DEDICATION

Dr. Hans G. Heymann

To one who stresses academic excellence as a challenge to students to think,
to reflect, to question;

To one who expands the classroom
to encompass the world, its problems,
its destiny;

To one who brings to the campus
a deep sense of dignity, of worth, of purpose;

To one who stands for Truth;
We, the Class of 1966, dedicate the HACAWA to
DR. HANS G. HEYMANN.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Lenoir Rhyne College is operated by the North Carolina Synod of the Lutheran Church in America through a Board of Trustees. This Board determines the general policies and program, and plans for the future development and the financial support of the College. It engages the administrative officers and the faculty who manage the affairs and conduct the educational program of the institution.

The membership of the Board is composed of nine ministers and fifteen laymen who are elected by the North Carolina Synod of the Lutheran Church in America. It also includes two ex-officio members: the President of the Synod and the President of the College.

Dr. Harry Isenhour, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, breaks ground for the Lineberger Administration Building.

THE PRESIDENT

Each academic year has distinctive marks which make it a unique chapter in the life of the College. The observance of the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of Lenoir Rhyne will leave its imprint to make 1965-66 a memorable year.

The Anniversary Observance is valuable to the extent that it makes us who occupy the collegiate stage today more appreciative of our heritage, more alert to the contemporary scene, and better prepared to mold the future. Truly, this constitutes the mission of the College every year of its life, but the Diamond Jubilee should intensify our enthusiasm for it.

May the students of this seventy-fifth session and the members of the Anniversary Class of '66, by their career achievements and their role in the onward march of their Alma Mater, cause the Diamond Jubilee to be treasured as an eminence in the annals of Lenoir Rhyne.

CONTRIBUTION

We have come to learn,
yet how do we achieve it?
We buy our books, attend our classes—
But there is more to gain.
We are confronted by a multitude of activities,
and they too can teach us;
From organizations,
Playmakers, cheerleading,
Student Government,
and publications we obtain learning from experience.
Sometimes it's easy to retreat,
to call them foolish
and superfluous;
Sometimes it's easy to "overload," to find our academic study lacking.
Yet there's a time—
the sought-for balance—
when extracurriculars become practical learning and a CONTRIBUTION.

"I would walk with all those who walk.
I would not stand still to watch the procession passing by."

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

MARK COOPER, President

LARRY WILSON, Vice-President

PAM PEER, Secretary

Toward higher academics has been the theme of emphasis for this year's Student Government. Established in 1960 as a campus government strictly of and by the students, Student Government has become an authority concerned with all aspects of campus functions. The student system is composed of four major units. Student Cabinet, with four representatives from the four major classes and one representative each from the commercial and nursing classes, is the ultimate student authority in legislation. Student Commission, consisting of dormitory and day student representatives, is the sounding board and recommender for changes in campus policy. Commission also serves as an appellate court for House Council trials and minor day student offenses. Student Court is the highest campus court, trying cases of any major constitutional violation. The five House Councils form the basis for Student Government by directing their respective dormitories. In addition to the four phases of Student Government, the President's Commission was established this year to bring all organizations into closer unity.

The history of the Lenoir Rhyne College Union began a short six years ago. More than just a building, the union was designed to be both an organization and a program. It was to be the community center of the college, for all the college family —students, faculty, administration, alumni, and guests.

In order to accomplish and fulfill successfully the designed purpose of the union, it was felt that a multiple combination of student, faculty, administration, and alumni governing bodies were necessary. The board of governors was formed as the chief governing body to formulate policies, approve proposed programs and budgets, and have a general and broad oversight regarding center operation.

As a means of carrying out the policies and approved program of the board of governors, the program board was created. Its major function is to conduct the continuing, ongoing program of the center. The five committees—house, publicity, social, fine arts, and recreation—sponsor a variety of programs ranging from bridge, pool, and chess to speakers, concerts, classical movies, and a wide variety of good entertainment.

Although the Voigt R. Cromer College Center is young, the program and the governing procedure is believed to be the best and clearest manner with which to make clear the proper concepts of union ideals.

The union program is one of opportunity for self-expression and self-testing, as it is a realistic situation of persons working together with the only grade involved being the results obtained.

HACAWA

From the first thin HACAWA in 1909 to the fifty-eighth volume in 1966, the annual of Lenoir Rhyne College has been enlarged and transformed from a publication of the senior class for the college to a publication of the student body for the campus community. Each HACAWA, however, has been edited for the same purpose—to capture and preserve something of the essence of the academic year. This year, working for the largest enrollment in the history of the college, the expanded staff has made appointments, taken pictures, written copy, and typed pages of material in its attempt to meet the "deadlines." Without the cooperation of each one on campus who has posed for a picture or contributed information, the staff could not have achieved its aim. A special thank you from the staff is extended the Public Relations office for its service in helping to record Lenoir Rhyne's experience in 75 years.

"I think that's the way you spell it!"

From a meager one page sheet compiled by literary societies to the present four-page edition, the Lenoir Rhynean has increased both its scope and its impact. Since 1927 when it gained sponsorship of the student body, the Lenoir Rhynean has served as a news media for both campus and community.

Not only does the staff strive to cover all phases of news, but also to increase the number of and improve the quality of feature material. Editorially, the paper serves as a sounding board for and against international, national, state, and campus issues. Dedicated to the search for truth and the communication of ideas, the Lenoir Rhynean seeks to attain and sustain its goals.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Religious, inspirational, moving – the Lenoir Rhyne A Cappella Choir offers revelation and beauty through song. Founded by Professor Lee in 1935, the choir is one of the best-loved and long-remembered of campus activities. This year after months of rehearsal, the sixty-two voice choir travels to "sunny" Florida, culminating its season's tour in the annual Palm Sunday concert at St. Andrew's Church. The choir's final contribution comes with the Baccalaureate service when the beauty of music and the words of Christian worship bring inspiration to graduation.

"O day full of grace . . ."

Practice, practice, practice!!

"Now try it one more time," says Dr. R. F. Gatwood, better known as "Dad."

Seventy-six trombones? No — just three, but we're hoping . . .

Change and increase are the dominating ideas concerning the Lenoir Rhyne Band as it approaches its 29th year of existence. Throughout the football season the band lent spirit and color to the crowds. In addition to the increase of student participation in the band, the year was marked by new uniforms. The band appeared for the first time in their new uniforms at the Christmas concert. Several ensemble programs and the spring concert rounded out the season's performances.

CANTERBURY CLUB: Bill Davis, Jane Davis, Mrs. Jeffers, William Anne Barnes, Reed Barnes.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club, composed of interested Episcopal students on campus, convenes monthly for the purpose of providing lectures, discussion and fellowship for its members. Under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jeffers, Canterbury meets at the home of Rev. Richard Turkelson, rector of the Church of the Ascension Episcopal with which this organization is associated.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

The Westminster Fellowship was founded some fifteen years ago at Lenoir Rhyne for Presbyterians and those students who wish to affiliate themselves with the Presbyterian church. It is affiliated with the First Presbyterian Church of Hickory.

The organization seeks to unite in Christian Fellowship and to foster a sense of common loyalty to Christ and His church.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Lutheran Student Association is the student movement on campus composed of Lutherans and other interested students.

The organization on the Lenoir Rhyne Campus plays an active part in regional and national levels. From 1941-45 the L. S. A. was combined with the campus Luther League. Then, in 1946, it became an independent organization.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP: Sitting: Terri Ross, Scotty Taylor, Annette Fowler. Standing: Cheryl Houser, Suzanne McCreary, Rick Abercrombie, Carolyn Balch, Loonis McGlohon, Peggy McCarter, Jerry Cross, Candy Smart.

RELIGIOUS GROUPS

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

"Christ above all" signifies the basis for the establishment of the Methodist Student Movement in 1960. Striving for this basis and for better interdenominational relations, the members of the movement seek to provide a spiritual atmosphere essential for Christian growth through education, service projects, and participation.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

A practical channel through which Christ reaches students, the Baptist Student Union trains college people for effective Christian discipleship. Since 1959 the group has reminded Baptist students on campus of their obligations as Christian citizens to the world. It provides inspiration, information, and fellowship for Christian growth while in college.

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL: Sitting: Brenda Hoffner, Sandra York, Jane Arndt, Janet Peace, Marianne Howard, Sue Grape. Standing: Scotty Taylor, Terri Ross, David Shulenburger, Janice Brawley, Kennetha Frye, Chaplain Walker, Annette Fowler, Ron Eckard.

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

Ecumenical in composition but facilitative in purpose, the Religious Council serves fellow campus citizens by supplying the impetus and creativity for campus religious life. First established in 1929, the Religious Council is composed of representatives of all religious groups. Annually the Council sponsors the Campus Chest, bringing to the campus an awareness of needs beyond its narrow confines. Thus the Religious Council serves to unite the campus in the common bond of Christian leadership.

DIAKONIA

"Diakonia" means "service." As a consequence it is a fellowship of students who are interested in lifetime Christian service. The group is interdenominational. Coming together since 1916 for growth and spiritual and intellectual inspiration, the group also serves campus, community, and church.

Y. W. C. A.

One of the older organizations on campus, dating back to the 1920's, the Young Women's Christian Association seeks to promote a Christian atmosphere on campus. Activities include a "Big Sister-Little Sister" program and Christmas caroling to the homes of professors.

Use of the library is a must for debaters.

"Now, this is a good point."

Debating has been a part of campus life since the beginning of the college. First coming under the activities of the now extinct literary societies, debates were of an intracampus nature. 1965-66 has witnessed the Lenoir Rhyne team traveling to Florida State, Western Carolina, and Atlanta to participate in regional and national debates. As a young team, it has been gaining experience in small tournaments this year. It has also sponsored its own annual South Atlantic Forensic Tournament.

NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

The Student National Education Association, affiliated with both state and national organizations, is the professional association for college students preparing to teach. Designed to provide opportunities for professional growth, leadership, and understanding, NEA furthers the student's interest in teaching and encourages selective standards for teacher education programs.

MUSIC CLUB

Striving to develop an earnest appreciation for and an insight into the many phases of serious music, The Kenneth B. Lee Music Club promotes varying programs. Sponsoring prominent artist-lecturers, attending student recitals, and traveling to neighboring cities to hear concerts enumerate some of the organization's activities. Interested students in the field of music are urged to hold membership in the club.

RADIO STAFF

The Radio Staff informs the students at Lenoir Rhyne and the people of Hickory of all newsworthy events that take place on campus through news and sports programs over the facilities of radio stations WHKY and WIRC. Programs are taped in the recording room in the Mauney Music Building.

Luisa (Carole Granchi) and Matt (Jim Thomas) play the children who are in love in the musical, "The Fantasticks."

"The rape Venetian needs a blue lagoon," sings El Gallo (Tom Havnaer) to Bellamy (Mike Frye) and Huckleby (Terry Pitts) during the "Rape Ballet" from "The Fantasticks."

Best noted for his death scenes, Dick Waddell plays Mortimer, the Indian with a cockney accent in "The Fantasticks."

Two old ladies (Nancy Hough and Deanna Davis) decide to relieve mankind of misery with poison to the consternation of Walter Freed and Ron Eckard.

Mr. Sam Baker, Director, and Mr. Richard Zimmerman, Technical Director, exemplify their personalities to the student body.

A theme of brotherhood is presented in the Fine Arts presentation, "Look Homeward, Angel," through the characters of Eugene (Doug Everhart) and Ben (Mike Frye).

The Lenoir Rhyne College Playmakers were organized in 1926 under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Setzer Deal. During the early years of the organization many classics were presented for the school and public, and contests and productions of new plays were held annually. After the forty years that have passed, the Playmakers still attempt to present challenging work for their actors, technicians, and audiences. This year the season opened with the ever-delightful comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace" by Joseph Kesselring. The winter season welcomed the experimental musical "The Fantasticks," which featured such songs as "Try to Remember," and "Soon It's Gonna Rain." The Fine Arts Festival in March brought the challenging "Look Homeward, Angel," popular North Carolina novel of Thomas Wolfe, adapted by Ketti Frings for the stage. As its final production of the year the Playmakers gave a special 75th Anniversary program for the May meeting of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod.

Make-up transforms Richard Nininger into a character of faint resemblance to Boris Karloff in "Arsenic and Old Lace."

CAMPUS GUIDES

Orientation of the Freshman Class is made possible through Campus Guides answering questions, conducting tours, helping with registration, sponsoring picnics, guiding skits, and above all disclosing a genuine welcome. This group of upperclassmen are chosen to represent all facets of college life and receive weekly spring training for their fall duty of introducing Lenoir Rhyne and the Freshman Class to each other.

CHEERLEADERS

"Who ya gonna yell for? . . . L.R.C." Who leads the yells? Cheerleaders. Pep rallies, snake dances, blazing bonfires, and student cheering sections are all a part of the spirit program instigated by the Cheerleaders and Joe Bear. Without them the football and basketball stands are dead, but with them the crowd becomes a part of the game, a part of the final score.

DISTINCTION

We have become involved
in the rhythm of college life.
We have been driven to give of our best—
no matter the activity.
We have worked for perfection.
We have received the personal gratification of the job well done.
But the public honor
we have given to a few:
to them, DISTINCTION.

What hath it done
That it in golden letters should be set
Among the high tides in the calendar?"

COMPETITION

We are a mind; we are a body.
The mind leads the body,
but without the body
there is nothing to guide.
The connection is personified
on hardwood courts,
on grassy gridirons,
on dusty diamonds,
on trodden tracks.
As spectators
we sense the excitement;
As participants
we experience the discipline.
Together we strive for victory.
Together we gain
a sense of accomplishment,
a sense of sportsmanship
through COMPETITION.

It was the best of seasons, and the season of the worst defeat, it was the season of light and the season of darkness, it was the season of hope and the season of despair, and for the Mountain Bears it was the season which started slowly and picked up speed all the way to the finish line.

Receiving the kick-off, wingback Charlie Heye securely grasps the ball in hopes of a long run downfield.

Herb Artega makes a last minute attempt to stop opposition.

Freshman Frank Moseley shares the tension of the game as the Bears move downfield to add another TD to the score.

Sam Holcombe, ball in hand and receiver in view, prepares to heave the long bomb downfield.

For everyone it was a season of "Dare you" action, but the Bruins made it stick. Quick kicks, end sweeps, long bombs, and plain, simple "sock 'em" football were the order of the day for Hanley Painter's strong young charges. The way they played kept everyone up in his seat and wishing for "One more game." It was a long journey and many battles before the last bastion was conquered, but the young grizzlies clawed and fought their way, gaining strength from giving strength until the wars were over and the championship garland was placed on the brow of its new inheritors.

Showing the "Bear" spirit, the Bruin defenders move quickly to stop a fast approaching Newberry back.

Charlie Heye kicks the ball, putting both the pigskin and the Bears into action.

Roy Forehand utilizes both size and strength as he stops the opposition with a crushing tackle.

Coach Cornwell observes Bears Eric Vivian and David Elder as they practice their blocking for an approaching game.

Eric Vivian waits for a quick snap from center.

Catching the defense off balance, Sam Holcombe hastily drops back and quick kicks to gain yardage for the Bears.

Mike Campbell turns the tide of motion as he sweeps downfield to add six points to the score of the fighting Bears.

Center Larry Helms moves quickly to throw the runner for a loss of yardage.

Both the spectators and the players wait tensely as the Bears drive for a touchdown in the Wofford game.

Left to right: Steve Holleman, R. D. Carson, David Wells, Aubrey Cochran, Roger Kinsey, Mark LaMoreaux, Gerald Mills, Bill Davis, Dale Basinger, Rich Hardy.

Time-out brings the team to the bench for a conference with Coach Lucke.

R. D. Carson jumps high to score for the Bears.

This year's edition of the Bruin basketball team enjoyed some genuine high points in compiling a break-even 14-14 record. Among the Bears' accomplishments were a six point win over conference champion High Point; an eight point victory over Guilford, who later took the NAIA title; an 82-74 victory over arch-rival Appalachian; and a convincing 108-70 trouncing of Atlantic Christian.

Coach Ed Lucke

Aubrey Cochran makes a quick stop to confuse his Newberry opponent and change his course.

R. D. Carson is interviewed after playing an outstanding game for the Bears.

Towering over his opponents, Bill Davis adds two points to the score.

Aubrey Cochran drives in for a lay-up.

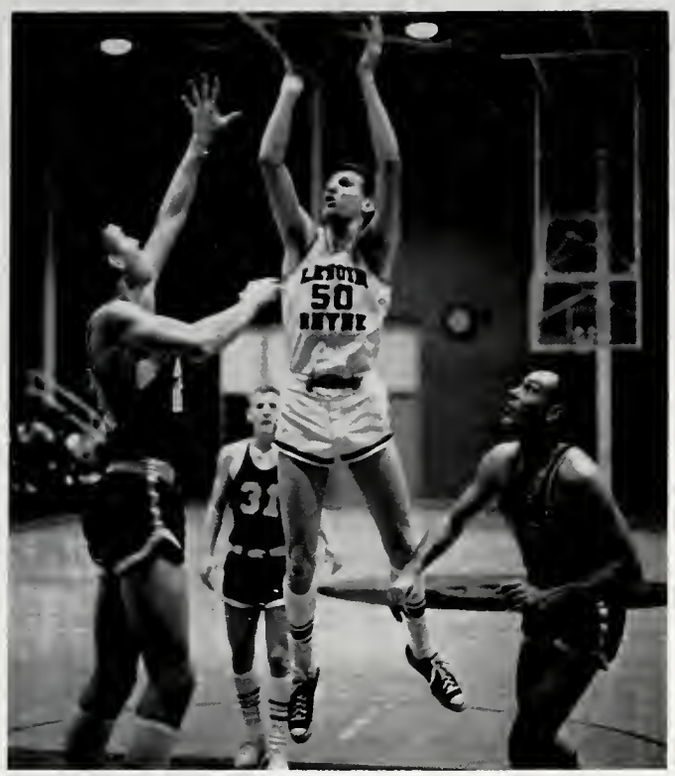

Steve Holleman keeps his eyes on the ball as he moves in for the shot.

(Conference Tournament)

Mark LaMoreaux takes advantage of his height as he towers over his opponents to up the score.

Rich Hardy tries to keep his Atlantic Christian opponent from gaining control of the ball.

Mark LaMoreaux dwarfs the court as he goes up for two.

With four of the Bears' five starters averaging in double figures, Coach Ed Lucke achieved one of his major goals—scoring balance. All-Conference guard R. D. Carson led the Bruin scoring parade, posting a 20.7 point average. Outstanding in the Bears' attempts to control the boards were LaMoreaux and Cochran, boasting 9.1 and 8.4 rebound averages.

The Bears dipped in and out of the NAIA statistics race in the field goal percentage category all season, finishing with 49.2 per cent accuracy. Wells paced the Bears, shooting 54.2 per cent of his attempts from the floor. The High Point win sent the Bears into the tournament favored as the upset team of the league, but Appalachian stopped the Bears in the first round, 75-64.

Bokey Wright waits for the next pitch in hopes that it will be a strike.

BASEBALL

The Bears wait and watch as action takes place on the dusty diamond.

Coach Walter Cornwell

The 1965 Lenoir Rhyne Bears Baseball team met a season of defeat. The diamond men started quickly with four conference wins, but faltered to an 8-10 mark as the diamond action came to a close.

Senior Tom Brown led the line-up as he batted .343 for the Bears coached by Walter Cornwell. He earned a spot on the All-Conference team as a utility infielder. Pitchers Mike Lackey and Barry Gibson did the major work load for the Bears carrying marks of 4-3 and 3-3, respectively for the season.

Although there were few truly eventful happenings in the season, the Bears held a high position in the Conference.

Larry Helms ties the score with one crashing blow.

Dale Basinger checks the position of the first baseman before delivering a strike.

TRACK

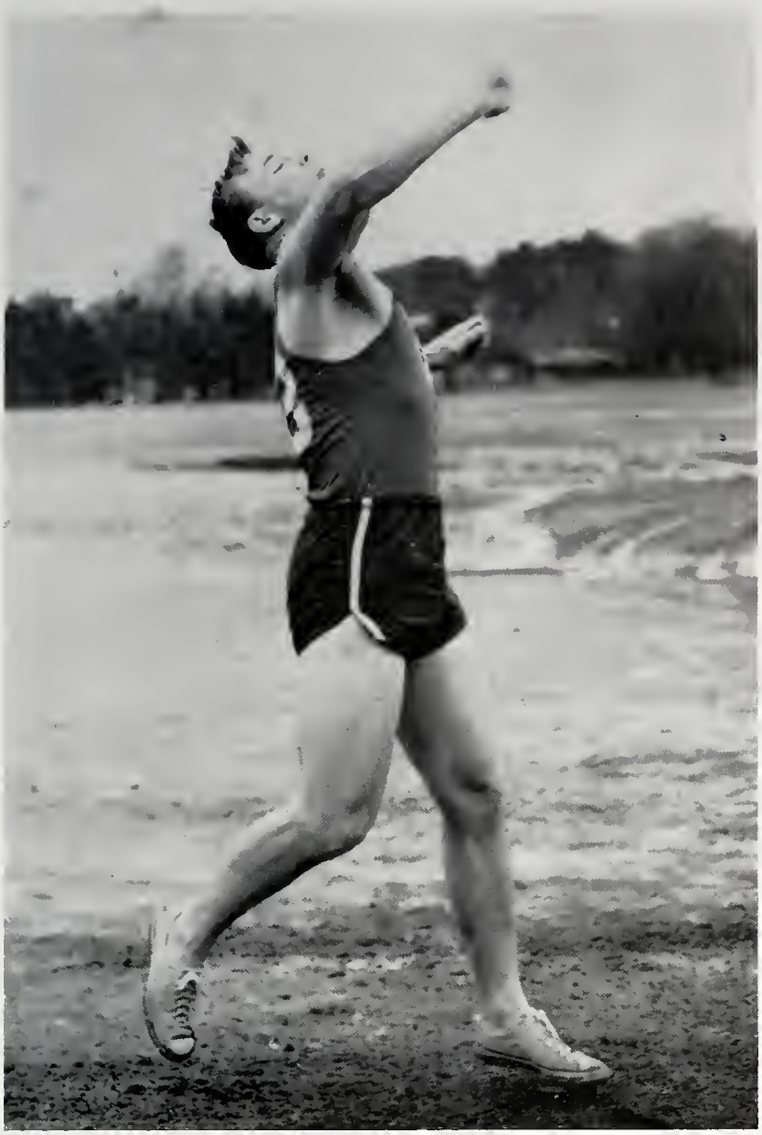

The thinclads of Lenoir Rhyne once again ranked among the top in the Carolina's Conference. The season was highlighted by impressive showings at the Davidson Relays, the District NAIA and the track meet for the Carolinas' Conference.

Although the Catawba cindermen won the top spot in the conference, the Bears managed to establish three of four new records in the Conference Track Meet. These were set by: Sam Holcombe, 100-yard dash in 9.7 seconds; Wayne Bell, a record shot put of 46 feet, 11¾ inches; and Glenn Morrison with a pole vault of 13 feet.

Richard Hardy, Winston Wine, Fred Crump, and Mike Campbell proved to be outstanding distant runners; while Glenn Dawson showed accomplishment with his technique of the javelin. Thinclad Richard Swink was an outstanding hurdler and Bill Davis brought pride to the Bears with his accomplished high jumping.

Coach Norman Punch

Wayne Belle makes use of each muscle for a successful throw of the shot put.

At the sound of the gun, Sam Holcombe sprints away for the 100-yard dash.

Mike Campbell smoothly swings his body high and far as he vaults the crossbar.

INTRAMURALS

Under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. Lucke, with the help of students, Lenoir Rhyne has an extensive Intramural program. For participation and victory in football, baseball, softball, track, pool, chess, checkers, volleyball, foul shooting, and ping pong points are given. A team trophy and individual trophy are awarded at the end of the year on the basis of the point system. The 1965 individual champions were Brenda Campbell and Jim Edwards.

Intramurals offer an opportunity for practice as well as participation.

Intramurals are fun, but sometimes painful.

Girls forget about neat hairdos as they seek control of the ball.

Terry Evans practices his shooting for an all important tournament.

KAPPA OMICRON CHAPTER

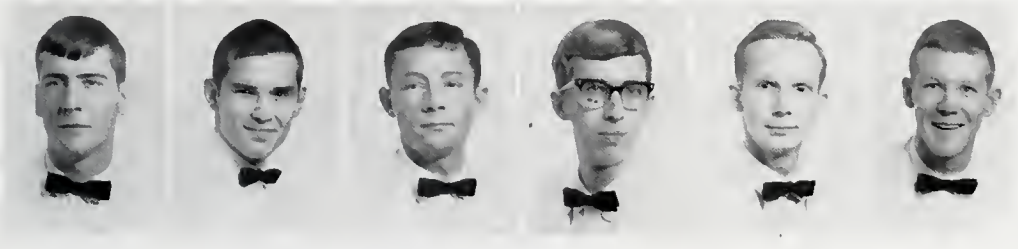

Cooperation, patience, and brotherhood go into the Homecoming float.

CLASSIFICATION

We are each a name,
a card, a picture—
but also a unique individual.
We have chosen a small college
in hope of preserving identity,
But identity is a growing thing—
As Freshmen
we grasp each opportunity for fun, for the different,
for the collegiate.
As Sophomores
we settle into the comfort of experience,
of the carefree life
of superiority.
As Juniors
we realize a responsibility to others, to ourselves,
to the future.
As Seniors
we look beyond campus confines
to student teaching,
to job interviews,
to the hope of what life holds.
CLASSIFICATION is the record of each new step.

"The life of every man is a diary in which he means to write one story, and writes another; and his humblest hour is when he compares the volume as it is with what he vowed to make it."

EPILOGUE

We have called this year OUR year
In the sequence of the Lenoir Rhyne experience.

The past has formed her;

The future may change her;

Yet this is our part, OUR year.

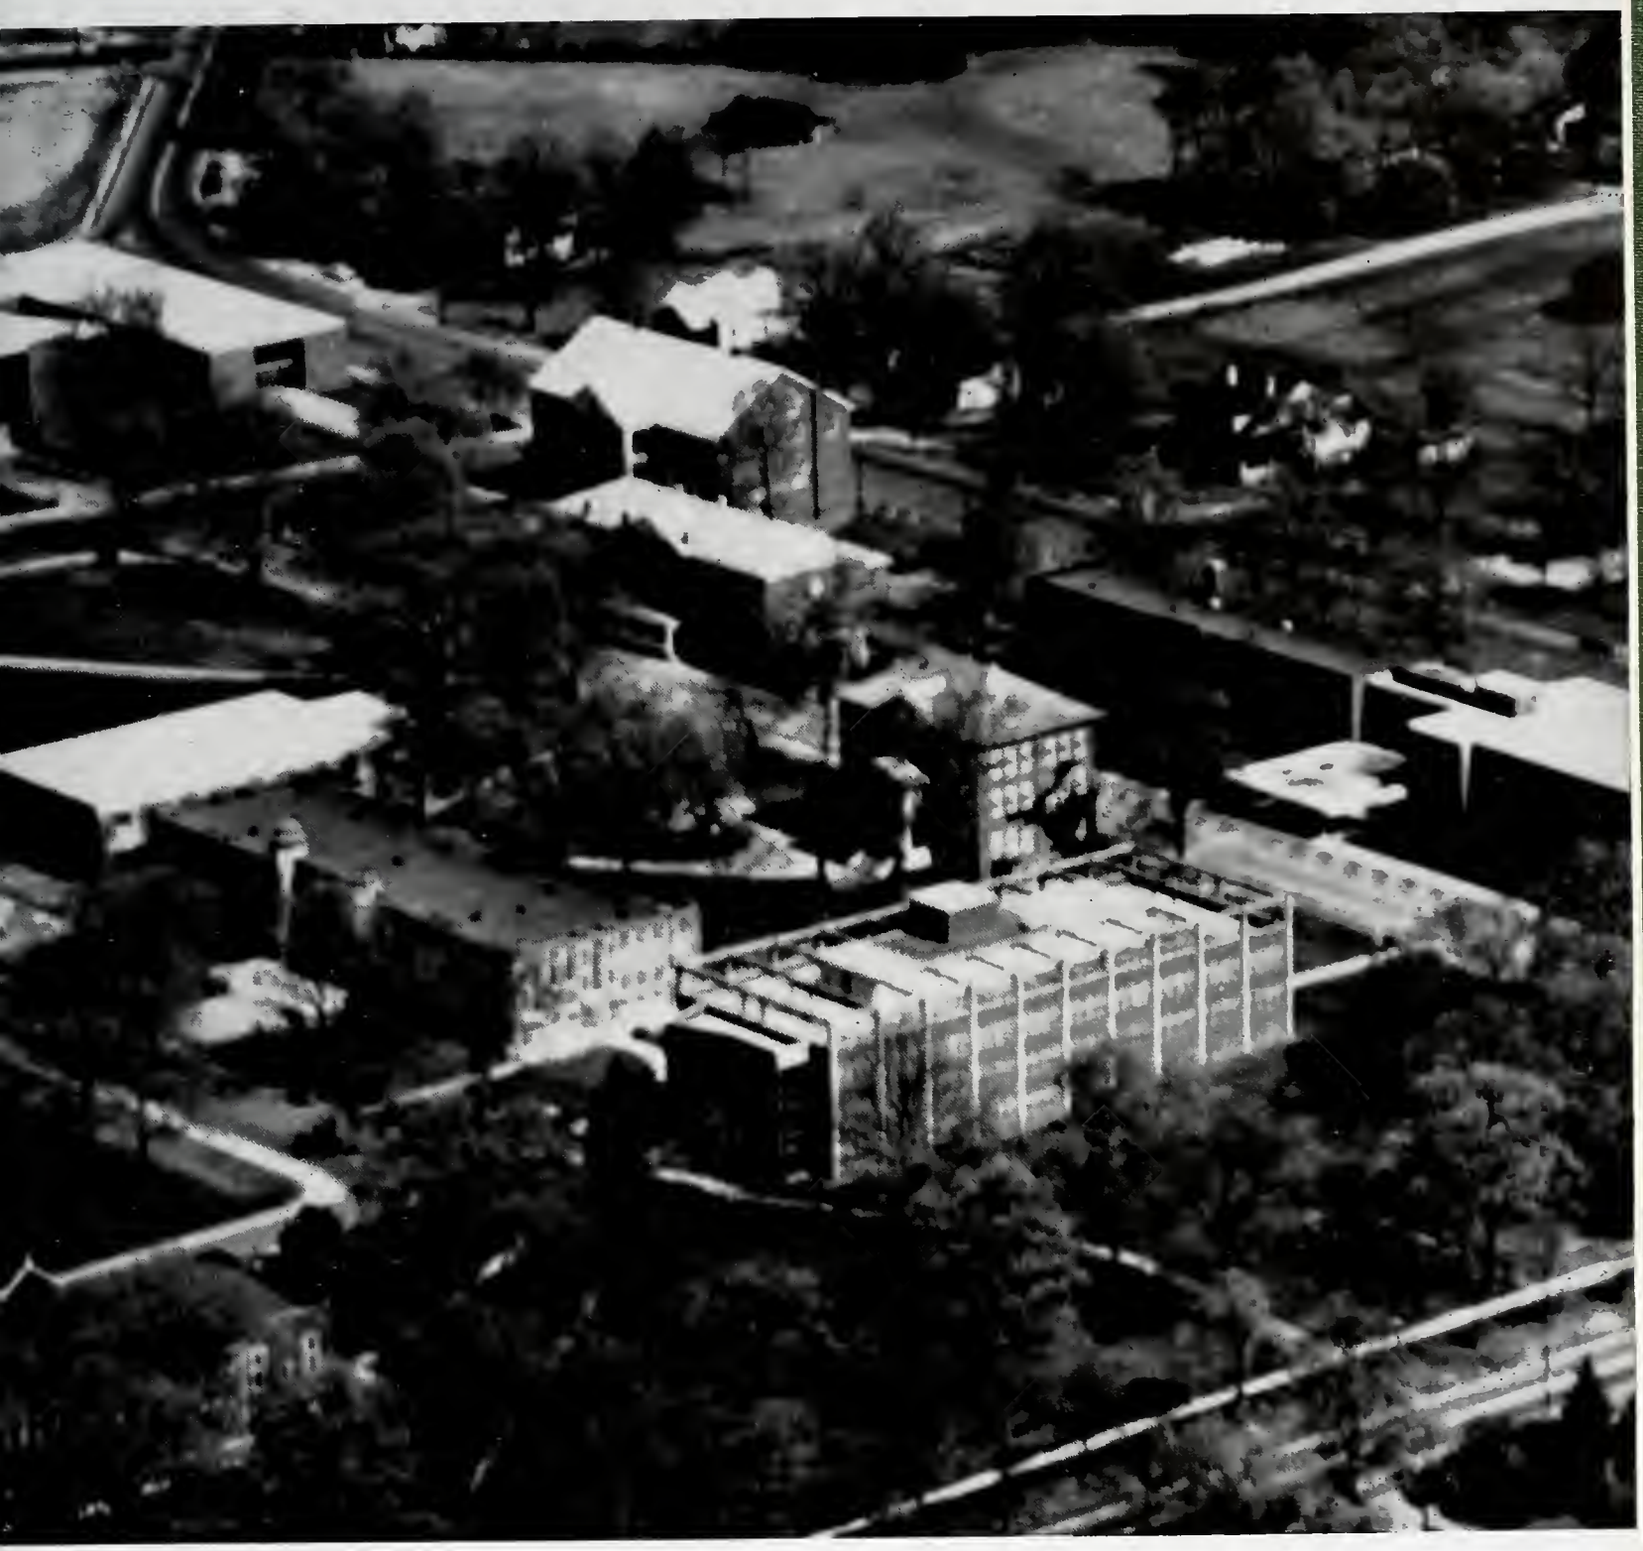

COLLEGE

This is Lenoir Rhyne

in her 75th Year

ADVERTISEMENTS

Each is a part of Lenoir Rhyne;
the school is a part of Hickory.
Just as there is an exchange between individual and institution,
there is mutual support
of college and community.
We give to the community—
facilities, education, entertainment.
We receive benefactors,
interested supporters,
a home for four years.
As the town has made
our college welcome,
it has made the record
of OUR year possible through
ADVERTISEMENTS.

"They deem me mad because
I will not sell my days for gold;
And I deem them mad because they think my days have a price."

All Your Cost-of-Living Items are Up...

BUT ONE!

In the past 20 years alone, most cost-of-living items have just about doubled in price . . .

Except for electricity, which has actually come down!

Fact! — Since 1943, the average cost of a kilowatt hour to Duke Power residential customers has dropped more than one-third. In that same period, the use of electricity has increased over 4 times, while the standard of living has gone up correspondingly.

It's truer today than ever before . . . you live better, for less, electrically.
